香港民意研究所副行政總裁鍾劍華解釋：「今天政府召開記者會宣布構想放寬食肆的限聚措施及有條件容許酒吧復業，市民的反應負面，懷疑政府要藉此迫令市民下載使用『安心出行』。今天的『限聚指數』數值是11.4，有69%市民認為現時限聚令太緊，政府公布的方案，明顯與市民的期望有極大差距」

On the latest figures of GGPI, Deputy CEO of HKPORI Kim-Wah Chung observed, “The CE announced some measures to relax restrictions on restaurant and bar operation. Many people doubt that the government intends to compel more people to download and to use LeaveHomeSafe. The reading of GGPI as today is 11.4, and 69% considered the current ban too strict. This clearly indicates that the government’s measures are still behind public expectations.”
