稻苗學會會長黃傑龍指出，「雖然業界已經非常積極配合新的限聚措施，無奈分類太過複雜，執行上難以適從。政府似乎沒有充分考量實際情況，因此客人和從業員都需要時間消化。我認為限聚人數仍可放寬，希望政府理解民間的實際情況後，可以從善如流。」

Simon WONG Kit-Lung, Chairman of Institution Of Dining Art, observed, “The industry is already very cooperative in carrying out the new measures, but because their classification is so complicated, it is very difficult to implement them. The government has apparently not considered the actual situation thoroughly, so it would require quite some time for both the customers and service providers to adapt. I think there is still room for the government to relax the gathering restrictions, in light of the real situation and the wish of the people.”
