獨立評論人潘麒智指出：「香港疫情持續好轉，但全球正爆發 Delta 變種病毒疫情。政府早前已透過傳媒預告，表明若爆發第五波，屆時很可能只容許D類處所提供晚市堂食，作為遏止病毒在社區傳播的措施，另外B類餐飲處所員工需由8月19日起每7天檢測一次，方可由8月26日起在受聘處所工作，已完成接種疫苗的人士則可獲豁免。可見政府為『谷針』可謂絞盡腦汁，漠視食肆面對的嚴峻情況。若爆發第五波疫情，本人建議實行『宵禁』，這將比管制餐飲業更實際！」

Independent commentator KC Poon observed, “While the epidemic situation in Hong Kong continues to improve, a global outbreak of the Delta variant is underway. The government has already indicated through the media that in case of a fifth outbreak, it is very likely that only Category D premises will be allowed to provide evening dine-in, while Category B catering staff would need to be tested every seven days starting from 19 August before they can work in the premises from 26 August onward, but those who have completed vaccination would be exempted. The government is obviously trying its best to boost the vaccination coverage, while ignoring the critical conditions of the restaurants. If there is really a fifth wave of outbreak, I would suggest applying a ‘curfew’ which would be more practical than regulating the catering industry!”
